Notes on the Process

- This resource was started on October 27, 2018
- This resource was last updated on September 1, 2020
- This is by no means an exhaustive list
- This is a living, fluid document subject to change
- This document is not publicly editable for logistical purposes (open to changing this in the future)
- Purchase books from the list of Black > Indigenous-owned bookstores listed at the bottom (Never from Amazon).
- Currently in the process of expanding and adding more accessible resources (e.g., videos and audios)
- Currently in the process of creating a shortlist (as this list may be somewhat daunting). (2/12/2020: still at a loss with this)
- Currently in the process of making these resources more Globally-oriented (currently it is very United States-centric)
- Each of these resources has its own limitations, gaps, silences, and fractures
